OTEAM TO PARAGUAY, BOLAVIA, &C.—CIRCULAR.—

New York: Becember 18, 1862.—She United States and Paraguay Steam Navigation Company, having been formed with a sufficient and paid in capital, a steamship of strength, speed and capacity, has been purchased by them, and will leave New York for the waters of La Plata, and ascend its upper tributaries, for the purpose of carrying freight and passengers, towing vessels, &c., under favorable inducements from the governments of Paraguay, Bolivia, &c. Connected with the project is another of a strictly commercial character. The stockholders in the Navigation Company have most of them united for the purpose of introducing American manufactures into those countries for the first time in many years having access to the ocean, and the advantages of a foreign commerce. These are rich in all the natural products of South America, and carnestly desire to exchange them for those of the United States. We are, therefore, instructed by the directors of the Steam Navigation Company to say that they have room in their steamer and saling vessels, which they are devoting to the reception of sample and other freights, to be disposed of by the agents of the company in Paraguay, Bolivia, Brazil, and at points hitherto having no direct intercourse with the United States. The company will account for all articles sold, and obtain orders for similar goods wherever practicable. As the steamer will sail in a few weeks, your immediate attention is requested to this circular, if you approve of its objects. LIVINGSTON, WELLS & CO., Agents, 74 Broadway.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS HAVE EFfected a wonderful cure of rheumatism. He was so painfully afflicted that his bedy was bent nearly double. In this deplorable condition, he commenced using Holloway's ointment and pills and so speedy was the cure effected by them, that it seemed to those who had witnessed his sufferings little less than a miracle.'' DURE VERSTABLE EXTRACT.—DR. MORSE'S INVIgrating cordial.—Dr. Morse's invigorating cordial for genital debility, impotency, incontinence, &c. The youthful indiscretion, or indugence of the passions in riper years, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered, in fact, as a remedy for the above complaints it stands unrivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the medical faculty. The wonderful vegetable production of which this medicine is composed has been tested, and its virtues proclaimed, by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief eities of Europe, as well as by eminent physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for nervous, head and mind complaints—the mental physic so long sough for and never before found—the only agent that can administer to mind diseases. It will remove all nervous affections, depression, excitement, incapacity to study or business, loss of memory, confusion, thoughts of selfdestruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by sensual excesses or evil practices.

Dr. Wood, of Massachusetts, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this cordial, thus:—"It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Boston, procured some of your cordial. He tells me he had not a single emission after he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me," says Dr. W., "It hough it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the usual medicines used in these cases in the hospital, but they had no effect. In the meantime, he purchased some

MEDICAL.

HYGIASTIKA.—A SPEEDY AND CERTAIN CURE FOR neuralgia tic deloreux, teothache, nervous headache and rheumatism in the head, and a sure preventive of convulsions, or any other complaints attendant upon early childhood during the period of teething, has been discovered, and is now being successfully administered in the form of a medicated necklace, to be worn next the skin by the patient. An eminent German physician discovered the virtues of the valuable medicines of which the beads of the necklace are made, and prescribed the mode of application. The notice of the public is net, therefore, called to a quack medicine, but to a medicament recommended by one of the most eminent of the faculty, as peculiarly powerful in acting through the pores of the skin directy upon the diseased or excited nerves, affording, generally, instant, and always permanent relief, and effecting a permanent cure. Patients who, at twenty-four hours trial of the medicated necklace, according to prescription, find no relief, may, at the close of that period, by immediately returning the same, receive back their money.

SCHUFFNER & MULDENEN.

Teemony.—I do hereby certify that the composition of the medicated necklace, according to prescription. Schuffner & Muldeney, is of such a nature as to unfailingly produce the most satisfactory results.

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COM THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COmpanion—By Dr. A. M. Mauriceau, Professor of Discusses of Women. Twentieth edition, 16mo, pp. 266. Frice 31. Years of suffering, of physical and mental anguish, to many an affectionate wife, and pecuniary difficulties to the husband, might have been spared by a timely possession of this work. It is intended especially for the married, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important secrets which should be known to them particularly.

Here, also, every female—the wife, the mother—the more either budding into womanhood, or the other in the decline of years, in whom nature contemplates as important change, can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies, and the most certain mode of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject. (Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Bayton, Ohis.)

the most efficient remedies, and the most certain mede of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject. (Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Bayton, Ohie.)

Dr. A. M. MAUNKCAU, 129 Liberty street.

My Dear Sir—My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some months before and during her confinement—every successive one more and more dabiliting and prostrating her, putting her life in immissed danger, and which was, on the last occasion, depaired et. I supposed this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this time, (new about two months.) I heard your book highly spokes of, as containing some matters reaching my case. On the receipt and perusal, I cannot express to you the relief in afforded my distressed mind, and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Dasomeaux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. But for this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave, and my children both metherless.

It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the scrious subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married, or those contemplating marriage. For sale, at 222 Broadway, No. 2 Astor House, and at the publishing office, 129 Liberty street, New York, 14ttle & Co., Albany; Joseph Tucker, Mobile. Also, T. F.
